Mark Frailey joins MV Transportation as Director of Business Development

Fairfield, CA – September 10, 2007 --- MV Transportation, Inc. is pleased to announce Mark Frailey has joined the company as Director of Business Development for the west region.

In this capacity, Frailey will be responsible for increasing new business and retaining current contracts for the company on the west coast of the United States.

A former US Marine, Mark brings to MV more than ten years of experience from within the transportation industry, specializing in fixed route transit operations. He has managed services in locations such as San Francisco, Dallas, New York and Denver.

“I am excited to have Mark on my team and am certain that his background and his skills will prove quite beneficial to the success of MV,” said WC Pihl, MV’s Vice President of Business Development.

Based in Fairfield, California, MV is the largest private provider of paratransit services and the largest privately-owned transportation contracting firm in the United States. The company employs more than 11,000 dedicated transit professionals and operates more than 180 paratransit, fixed-route, shuttle and Medicaid contracts in 27 states.
