

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

MV Transportation restructures for growth; announces several promotions and new hires

Fairfield, California –Due to the tremendous growth realized over the last year, and the numerous opportunities for continued success in the public transportation contracting business, MV Transportation, Inc. announced it is restructuring operations and making several key management appointments.

MV Chief Executive Jon Monson announced the following changes:

Mr. Adem Adem, has been promoted to President of MV's East Region. Adem began his career with MV in 2002 as a vehicle operator in Orlando. Since that time, he served as dispatcher, operations manager of the Orlando Call Center, division Manager of New York, and Regional Vice President. Adem has been responsible for the successful operations at WMATA and in New York, and has proven his ability to be a leader and a manager with very high standards.

Mr. Keith Whalen, has been named President of the newly established Central Region. The region includes all MV operations and contracts in the parts of the Midwest, southwest and southeastern United States. Whalen, who joined MV in 1999, was MV's Executive Vice President of Business Development and Chief Business Officer prior to his promotion. Whalen, has been instrumental in the company's tremendous growth.

Ms. Marsha Moore has been named Chief Information Officer of MV Transportation. Moore joined MV in 2003 and has assisted the company with the implementation several IT initiatives. Moore has an outstanding background in information technology. She was the owner on On-Line Data Products, Inc., the creator of the PASS paratransit software system. After the sale of her business to Trapeze Software Group, Inc. in the 1990's, Ms. Moore became an executive with Trapeze.

Ms. Nikki Frenney has been promoted to Vice President of Communications and Government Relations. In her expanded role, Frenney will become responsible for the overall development of the company's internal and external communications. She will take responsibility for management of MV's governmental and community affairs nationwide. Frenney joined MV in 2004 as Director of Communications for the Florida region and has since been responsible for communications functions nationwide.

Ms. Amy DePrisco has been promoted to Vice President of Marketing, and will manage the company's proposal production team, the MV website and advertising and graphics functions. DePrisco joined MV in 2002 as a proposals manager and has significantly contributed to the company growth.

Mr. Rob Dukes has joined MV as Vice President of Business Development. He will be responsible for developing additional business opportunities for the company on the East Coast. Dukes brings extensive transit and business development experience to MV. Prior to joining the company, he spent nearly 15 years at Trapeze Group working in various positions including General Manager and Vice President of Sales.

Mr. Kevin Adams, the former owner of TCT Transit Services, Inc. and the former President of Connex South and West companies (now Veolia) will join the company as a Special Consultant to the CEO. He will be assigned to assist the company in developing new business lines for the company and reviewing strategic alternatives to expand our business.

Mr. Ed Griffin has been promoted to Director of Marketing for Non-Emergency Medical Transportation Services, and will be responsible reporting to Sean Kimble, who is taking a leadership role in assisting the company in growing NEMT services. Ed will become responsible for expanding our business presence in this important new market.

Mr. Steve Royce has joined MV Transportation as Vice President of Human Resources. Royce comes to MV from Schneider National, one of the leading long haul trucking companies. He brings more than 25 years of human resources experience to MV.

Ms. Cristina Pereira has been promoted to Director of Human Resources for MV Transportation. She is the former Manager of Human Resources. In this new role, Pereira will be responsible for the company's human resources systems and processes, and implementing MV's paperless employment process.

Ms. Jann Almquist has joined MV as the new Manager of Recruitment. Jann has enjoyed a long and successful transit career and most recently was a District Manager in Southern California with Laidlaw. Almquist's primary focus will be helping MV attract the very best talent to our business.

Based in Fairfield, California, MV is the largest private provider of paratransit services and the largest privately-owned transportation contracting firm in the United States. MV employs more than 10,000 dedicated transit professionals and operates more than 140 contracts in 27 states.
