

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

MV Transportation makes several promotions and names a new VP of Safety

FAIRFIELD, CA—(December 26, 2007) MV Transportation, Inc., the largest American-owned and privately-held transportation contracting firm in the United States, recently announced several new personnel changes.

Sean Kimble has been promoted to Chief Administrative Officer and will have oversight of several administrative functions, including Communications, Human Resources and Labor Relations. Kimble will also work closely with MV's Chief Executive Officer on long-term strategic planning.

Kimble joined MV in 2005 as Executive Vice President and was responsible for all Human Resource initiatives at the company. Prior to joining MV, Sean was Vice President of Human Resources for Charles Schwab Corporation and has served as Director of Human Resources and Labor Relations for Levi Strauss.

Raymond J. Ramsey has been promoted to Vice President of Legal Affairs and Human Resources. He will assume responsibility of MV's Labor Relations, Employee Relations, and Drug & Alcohol Compliance support functions.

Ramsey joined MV in 2006 as Corporate Counsel, directing MV's Labor & Employment/Litigation activities. Prior to joining MV, Ramsey worked as a senior employment counsel at the law firm of Lafayette & Kumagai LLP in San Francisco defending Fortune 500 companies and governmental entities. He also held counsel positions at other law firms, including Baker & McKenzie, and Sheppard Mullin Richter & Hampton. He also worked as an in-house employment counsel for the U.S. Postal Service.

Burt Clearwater has joined the company as Vice President of Safety. Besides leading MV's corporate safety program strategy, Burt will be responsible for the company's Qualification and Drive Cam divisions.

Burt has 25 years of safety management experience with demonstrated expertise in the areas of employee and public safety, operational improvement, training, qualification, and compliance. Burt's safety experience includes nearly 20 years in the transportation industry. He has the unique ability to manage a complex safety system that encompasses the United States and Canada, specialized operations, and over 100 locations.

Based in Fairfield, California, MV is the largest private provider of paratransit services and the largest privately-owned transportation contracting firm in the United States. The company employs more than 10,000 dedicated transit professionals and operates more than 180 paratransit, fixed-route, shuttle and Medicaid contracts in 24 states.
