

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

Jeff Heavrin has been named Chief Financial Officer & Executive Vice President for MV Transportation, Inc

Fairfield, CA (February 8, 2008) --- MV Transportation, Inc. is pleased to announce Jeff Heavrin has joined the company as Chief Financial Officer and Executive Vice President.

Jeff brings a wealth of financial management experience to MV. From 2002 until he joined MV, Jeff worked for Central Parking Corporation (CPC), where he served in various capacities with increasing responsibility, including Senior Vice President and Chief Financial Officer.

Based in Nashville, CPC is one of the world's largest parking services provider and has 3,000 locations in 37 states and 14 countries. In his role at CPC, Jeff was responsible for accounting, treasury, investor relations, financial planning and analysis, real estate, internal audit, tax and corporate governance.

Prior to Central Parking, Jeff served as Vice President and corporate Controller at Service Merchandise, Inc. for four years and as audit manager at Deloitte & Touche.

"As MV continues to grow and expand our depth of services, it is vitally important that we have the right management team in place to guide the current and future successes of the company," said Jon Monson, MV's Chief Executive Officer. "Jeff's background and in-depth financial management skills make him the person for the role of CFO at MV."

A graduate of the University of Louisville, Jeff holds degrees in both Accounting and Finance, and is a certified public accountant.

Based in Fairfield, California, MV is the largest private provider of paratransit services and the largest privately-owned transportation contracting firm in the United States. The company employs more than 11,000 dedicated transit professionals and operates more than 180 paratransit, fixed-route, shuttle and Medicaid contracts in 24 states and the District of Columbia.
