

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

MV Transportation, Inc. names Judie Smith Regional Vice President of Southern California

Fairfield, CA – (January 28, 2008) MV Transportation, Inc. is pleased to announce Judie Smith has been promoted to Regional Vice President of Operations for Southern California.

Judie brings 18 years of transit operations management experience into her new role. She began her career with MV in 2001 as General Manager in Paramount, California where she managed several contracts, including the City of Los Angeles, Compton, Bell Gardens, Cerritos, Yorba Linda, MTA and Downey. Most recently she was the General Manager for MV's Van Nuys division where she managed the Access Paratransit contract for the County of Los Angeles.

In her new capacity, Judie will be responsible for MV's Beverly Hills, Avenue 21 and Los Angeles divisions, as well as provide oversight for all marketing efforts for three new divisions in Southern California.

"Judie's knowledge of transit operations, her outstanding ability to successfully manage several divisions and her can-do spirit make Judie the perfect choice for RVP," said Kevin Klika, President of MV's West Coast Operations.

Prior to joining MV, Judie was a District Manager for Laidlaw Transit Services in Long Beach, California.

Based in Fairfield, California, MV is the largest private provider of paratransit services and the largest privately-owned transportation contracting firm in the United States. The company employs more than 11,000 dedicated transit professionals and operates more than 180 paratransit, fixed-route, shuttle and Medicaid contracts in 24 states and the District of Columbia.
