

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

MV Transportation, Inc. becomes Community Transportation Coordinator for second time in Florida

The Board of Directors of the Central Florida Regional Planning Council voted unanimously to select MV Transportation as the new Community Transportation Coordinator (CTC) for Hardee, Highlands and Okeechobee Counties in Central Florida. The contract is scheduled to begin July 1st.

“We are extremely excited about this victory,” said Jon Monson, MV’s Chief Executive Officer. “This adds to our successful operations in Florida and demonstrates that MV is the provider of choice in the Florida market.”

Serving a predominantly rural area south of Orlando, the system provides approximately 157,000 trips annually using several local providers. MV will be responsible for administration of the system, which includes eligibility assessment, reservations, customer service, scheduling, billing, reporting, etc.

MV currently is the Community Transportation Coordinator (CTC) for Alachua County (Gainesville), and provides transportation services in a number of other Florida communities.

Based in Fairfield, California, MV is the largest private provider of paratransit services and the largest privately-owned transportation contracting firm in the United States. The company employs more than 10,000 dedicated transit professionals and operates more than 180 paratransit, fixed-route, shuttle and Medicaid contracts in 24 states.
