MV Transportation Named Outstanding Vendor by AzTA

The Arizona Transit Association (AzTA) recently named MV Transportation, Inc. Vendor of the Year during its Annual Spring Conference.

According to the association leadership, MV was selected because of the outstanding service the company provides in Phoenix, Awahatukee, Tucson and Show Low. MV operates more than 150 vehicles in the state and employs more than 275 transit professionals.

Accepting the award on behalf of MV was General Manager Nate Peterson, an outstanding transit professional who has been instrumental in MV's success in Arizona.

What made MV stand above other transportation vendors was the company's excellence in service, commitment to the community, and strong statistical performance.

MV has:

- Served nearly half a million annual passengers (Phoenix Dial-a-Ride and ALEX)
- Traveled 5.5 million service miles (Phoenix Dial-a-Ride and ALEX)
- Achieved 93% On Time Performance for Phoenix Dial-a-Ride ADA service)
- Achieved 95% On Time Performance for ALEX
- Achieved a rate of 0.56 Preventable Accidents per 100,000 miles
- Achieved 97% On Time for Preventive Maintenance Inspections

"We are very appreciative of this honor," said Kevin Klika, President of MV's West Coast Operations. "We enjoy the relationships we share in Arizona with the transit community and look forward to continuing to serve the community and riders."

Based in Fairfield, California, MV operates more than 180 transit contracts in 24 states and the District of Columbia. MV employees more than 11,000 transit professional nationwide and operates nearly 7,000 vehicles.
