

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

MV Transportation, Inc. welcomes new talent to company's Business Development team

FAIRFIELD, CA—(January 17, 2008) MV Transportation, Inc., the largest American-owned and privately-held transportation contracting firm in the United States, is pleased to announce three key additions to its highly successful Business Development team.

Gary Coles has joined MV as Vice President of Business Development for the Central Region. He brings with him more than 20 years of experience in various management and transit operations positions, including sales and marketing experience. Gary also has worked as a customer service manager and in positions where he led complex contract negotiations.

He most recently served as General Manager for Veolia Transportation in Fairfax County, VA where he was responsible for contracts in excess of $30 million and 450 employees.

A former manager for Greyhound, Gary managed the company's Northeast operations and was responsible for more than $300 million in revenue. He is a past board member of the New York Bus Association, the New England Bus Association, and Pennsylvania Bus Association.

Joe Escobedo has joined the company as Director of Business Development for the West Region. In this capacity, Escobedo will be responsible for increasing new business and retaining current contracts for the company on the west coast of the United States.

Joe brings to MV more than fifteen years of experience from within the transportation industry, specializing in fixed route transit operations. He has managed services at a local and national level in locations such as San Antonio, Corpus Christi and Dallas.

(MORE)

In addition, John Duncan has been promoted to Director of Business Development for the East Region. John has more than 12 years of experience in various transit management positions, including paratransit, retail, and taxi operations.

He most recently served as General Manager for MV Transportation in Beltsville, MD where he was responsible for 130 vehicles and 240 employees. A former manager for Veolia Transportation, John managed the company's Savage facility operations and was responsible for Carey Limousine, Yellow Motor Coach, and Howard County paratransit.

“We are very excited to have these very talented individuals on our team,” said Jon Monson, MV’s Chief Executive Officer. “I am certain that his background and his skills will prove quite beneficial to the success of MV.”

Based in Fairfield, California, MV is the largest private provider of paratransit services and the largest privately-owned transportation contracting firm in the United States. The company employs more than 10,000 dedicated transit professionals and operates more than 180 paratransit, fixed-route, shuttle and Medicaid contracts in 24 states.

###

Contact:

Nikki Frenney, VP of Communications

Phone and fax: 707-863-8739

Email: nfrenney@mvtransit.com

Website: www.mvtransit.com