

MV Transportation, Inc. Names Jacqueline Nguyen Vice President & Chief Compliance Officer

For Immediate Release

DALLAS (June 8, 2015) – MV Transportation, Inc. is pleased to announce Jacqueline “Jackie” Nguyen has joined the company as Vice President and Chief Compliance Officer.

In this new role, Jackie will report directly to MV’s General Counsel and will be responsible for the company’s legal and regulatory compliance program and corporate governance. Jackie will develop and lead training on key policies, including approval authorities, corporate giving, privacy and the Foreign Corrupt Practices Act. Jackie will also serve as primary counsel for MV Global.

“Jackie is a seasoned corporate attorney and we are excited she has joined the MV Team,” said Lisa Winston Hicks, MV’s Board Chair and General Counsel. “Given her extensive international law experience, MV is even better prepared to expand our global footprint.”

Prior to joining MV, Jackie served as General Counsel for Regus Management Group. There, she advised senior management on domestic and international legal issues related to operations, regulatory compliance and risk management, and managed a legal team that included 2 internal attorneys and a host of outside counsel in 17 countries. Before joining Regus, Jackie served as Associate General Counsel at STMicroelectronics, Inc. where she spent nine years advising senior management on IP, corporate governance and operational matters.

“MV is managed by a leadership team of innovative thinkers who understand the industry, care about the services being provided to the community and inspire its employees to come up with creative solutions,” Jacqueline says. “I’m thrilled to be a part of the team as the company continues to grow and effectively deliver on its strategies.”

Jackie earned her law degree at Southern Methodist University School of Law in 1997 and her undergraduate degree in economics and accounting at University of Texas at Austin.
